Not wearing a mask. I'll just start killing people who try and mandate it. I'm over this entire parade. Stupid fucking hoax, and even if it wasn't - it's not my fault some assholes in power were playing with bioweapons. Fuck all of you. You can all die and one of my only comforts in life is knowing you all will indeed die someday.

For those who don't know yet, here is my theory.

1) the initial virus arose naturally in Southeast Asia, and was harmless (highest bat population, diversity, and almost zero deaths)

2) US scientists were trying to make a bioweapon out of it

3) Chinese spies caught wind, stole it

4) Chinese scientists bioengineered it into a less harmful strain to act as a moving vaccine, aka COVID-19 which spread in November2019

5) US realized this and dropped their actual bioweapon, which was unfinished, aka D614G mutation which spread in Europe/NYC in March 2020 (10x deadlier than Chinese strain)

6) due to the nature of the immunity, the US also spent 2020 bioengineering the virus further, and just now dropped their latest creation.

Of course they were right, all the athletes at their military games (French ones, etc) complained of symptoms after.

There were also mysterious outbreaks of 600+ absences in high schools across the US back in 2019.

The Chinese version was also mysteriously 10x more benign than the Euro version. The Chinese virus was a moving vaccine, intended to immunize the Chinese populace against the bioweapon they knew the US would release. Because the logistics of vaccinating 1.3 billion people is straight up impossiblie

We already know Fauci decided to collaborate with the Chinese biolab because the American biolab was concerned about safely keeping their research contained. Maybe someone should've showed him some Chinese factory videos. That was back during Obama years.

The chinese, globohomos, and our democrats are in on this scam. Both had a vested interest in releasing it to try to snub Drumpf's populism, just look how fast the media pivoted to blaming Pmurt for problems even though it was up to governors to decide how to handle their state with the President's team assisting with coordinating supplies. The hardest hit areas in the US happen to be corrupt blue states and hospitals are basically incentivized to label any visit as covid related since they lost a shitton of business when it first hit.

It isn't that I think the vaccine will give me boobs or that there'll be a chip in it or that it will warp my DNA, it's mainly because all the people insisting I inject it are loathsome scum who hate me.
It's the people who pathologized my perfectly natural wish to live in a homogeneous nation.
The people who said the mass rape of English girls by foreigners was no big deal because Jimmy Saville.
It's the people who think and feel in PR soundbites and slogans crafted by international NGO's.
The people advocating we turn England into a giant concrete slab to raise the GDP.
The people who re-frame censorship as a liberal act to protect minorities rather than to protect themselves and their own cruelty from scrutiny.
These people have spent an entire generation whipping and chaining the native British like dogs and now they act surprised when we are highly suspicious of their vaccine, but it seems beyond their comprehension to ask why it is they're not trusted.

Here is my super schizo theory:

Covid 19 is a protozoal parasite that escaped due to ice melting. All Global Warming BS is about not releasing serious protozoal parasites that lurk under the ice there. Just right now an iceberg the size of NYC is breaking off.

The elites know that this is a parasite, and even China's bioweapon with fake HIV inserts is cover for what is really happening... an unstoppable parasite that once before completely obliterated humanity.

Look at: What fights off Covid-19?

Anti-protozoal/anti-parasitic
>Ivermectin, Artemisinin, Quinine, HydroxyChloroquine
All anti-protozoal/anti-parasitic. All the best things we have.

Typically it looks like > Anti Malarial = Anti Covid
I had no idea about Malaria
>Single celled parasite

Look at the crowds, the TP madness, the desire to not mask up, to not social distance, to keep eating out, to gather in massive crowds BLM, Antifa, Trump groups. The lack of coordination in almost all government bodies. The huge oversights, cannot get tests right, cannot get vaccines right in studies... No innovation at all. 0. in 1 year. Swedish kids now purposefully infecting themselves. People cannot stop moving around... while smart people hide at home like me.

Study after study showing that Covid acts on the mind. It messes with oxygen, causes behavioral changes, suicide, depression, delusions. All sites of a Brain parasite.

Not sure how many people left on Earth outside of AUS, NZ, China that have made it this far. I am way behind enemy lines in USA, have begun writing politicians in foreign countries to get sanctuary. I am talking right now to likely all infected parasitical hosts for Covid X. Fuck me.

You fuckers don't understand. I am not mental I have degrees. I would bet my life on this fact, Covid-19 is at least partially parasitical and 6 billion people are infected already. It gets harder and harder to fight off as I purge myself with 20 medicines... It lessens your desire to fight. Lessens your fear. You can see it here. All you infected have done gymnastics with this NWO BS, when in reality the virus is turning you hard. Any movie pre covid-19 will show you our normal human response to viruses. GET THE FUCK AWAY. Whether it kills .0001% or 99%, we don't know the long term effects just like anything else. Yet it's cool to not wear a mask? You're free? NO YOU ARE INFECTED. You are toxoplasmosis HUMAN. I can only hope someone will save humanity, we're gonna go below 500 million for sure, or it will likely just be China left standing...

The only country testing all their fucking food. Imagine them having food supply issues, rejecting food from:
>Brazil, Germany, UK, USA, Australia, NZ
All the other countries' leaders cannot understand, wtf China? Where is the proof Covid is in food? IT IS. You would realize it if you weren't infected. It's nuts. This is almost too much to bear. It's a zombie apocalypse without the physicality, just some strange mental composure challenge... where everyone around the few still standing have no fucking clue what is going on anymore.

I WOULD BET EVERYTHING I HAVE ON THIS. PARASITE. NOT JUST A BIOWEAPON. NOT AN NWO PLAN. LITERALLY THIS IS IT KIDDOS.

If you are a regular good customer but oppose mask/vac, they won't want to lose your business and will deliver or put your stuff outside etc or bring to your car. Trust me, I haven't worn mask all year, go to same store daily, no one has said a thing, they don't want to stop me from being such a regular customer. Everyone recognizes me, I don't care if it annoys employees to see the same guy everyday, I'm there five minutes, they're there all the time for eight hours each day, who's the crazy one again? But management type staff are really nice to me and helpful and will cut some corners for me (examples like no need Id buying booze, if I'm short a dollar or so they don't care, they will change their order into if I want something regularly that they need to increase stock of to do so etc). I go daily because I'm mentally ill and it's comforting to me to go out and come home to start my day. I don't wear mask because it makes me feel weak and susceptible to the virus, I believe the confidence of not wearing mask is healthier than wearing mask, because confidence beats fear in building strength of spirit and immunity. I also disagree with it to passively resist the dehumanization agenda and to set a good example for others of how to remain active and healthy during a pandemic. I know for a fact employees have calmed down their fears by seeing me and knowing, hey, that guy hasn't got sick, maybe this pandemic is a little blown out of proportion...

not a single faggot left alive. Nobody is going to fix our covid laden food supplies. The entire west is all fucked I guess. Ok zombies... have fun whining about the NWO and when they start to fall apart, just like them putting on a girl who died from a vaccine (so unsmooth) or literally failing to make a fake account or damage control... if you cannot see NWO elites are cracking to all fuck right now, IDK I would still see that even if I had covid brain parasite. What a weak reality this turned out to be. Nobody but me and few others I guess have the strength to even see what is happening.

Read it then call me insane. It is undeniable that every prophylaxis that really does anything is all a HEAVY anti parasite. Then start looking at societies in the west right now not as some giant freedom movement, but as a parasite increasing spread. You'll start to see something if you're not too bogged down. Just in case >>> Artemisinin.
2 Things keep me going:
1. Nobody tells me what to do no matter what. Not even a damn parasite.
2. I am going to be around to turn the mf lights off on this place if it comes to it. I love every facet of life, including pain. Nobody takes it away from me.

I was once working in DC in a think tank, full ride scholarships, etc etc. Didn't turn up at a certain celebrity party, my entire life was in ruins months later. I spent many years rebuilding myself, and God did it all for this. All the pain and suffering just deepened my consciousness. I am a hold out here in the US. I've been all over the world. We're in big big trouble in the West. They're lying. Our food is loaded with Covid. Loaded. Don't believe me?

Understand. Notice they arent as sharp as before. No one is really. Notice 0 innovation, no better masks, UV robots everywhere... member Elon Musk building vents? Notice NOTHING SINCE THE huge spread in March/April. We've turned off as a people. Everyone is operating on a lower consciousness... it's very dangerous as Covid-19 is FULL ON in US food. I can barely eat anything anymore. I am losing weight (I have tons of food available/ money). It is getting really serious.

Unless a few anons can listen to me and start clawing back to reality, we're going to take this freedom no mask no distance bullshit to the extreme, with race wars and bullshit at the same time. We'll have 2 presidents and China will laugh and do what they need to destroy us while they have massive amounts of leaders still safely not infected and aware of what is going on. This is really the end of all of us.

Why do you think Australia and Japan specifically made a defense pact? Look at those 2 countries. Both doing quite well with Covid. The surviving nations now working together. I am trying to get in touch with AUS politicians, but it's too schizo for them for some guy across the world. I really want to save us. I really hope God has a plan for this. I have to take care of my girlfriend too... so it zaps me hard. It'd be much easier alone, but I cannot abandon her I love her too much. I owe her. I need help anons. Anyone out there want to experiment? Buy this and then do not touch your face no matter what. Be ultra careful. Follow all research out of Australia, fuck the rest of the West's research it's covid influenced.

Most troubling. How many countries has it spread to by now, Sir?
Have you any insight on how much worse this version is? Is it known from where it comes, and who has released it?
Thank you.

I wonder why the rest of the world just has not yet banned the whole UK. That country is full of just small elite that is ultrarich.

And the poor and middle income do not even see this as they are brainwashed to the core. Just as the poor have been brainwashed to leave the EU. (Just what the Elite want's so the EU can't find out the inmense tax evation that is happening in the UK by the elite on islands far away.

The ELITE in the UK pay NO tax at all. And the rest of the UK just follwed them by going out of the EU. The common people in the UK have been brainwashed. Just dumb

You cant just glue different organisms together and call it a day. It will result in an unstable organism that simply falls apart after couple of reproduction cycles.

Then why is Fauchi in china swirling his crispr dick in coronaviruses? It's fun to shill but bruh.

Ebola is actually dangerous which makes it trivial to shut down. There is no man, god, or nation guard armchair larper on this earth that would stop niggers and hispanics from gunning down those with symptoms then burning, bleaching, and liming everything. When you retards brought them together for your color revolution bullshit you weaponized their retardation that only needed an easily digestible meme to identify, shoot, and burn infected.

An act of real bioterrorism on EU/USSA cucklandia would be stopped by the DARK TIDE Making America Great Again.

It has been what 8 months? In those 8 months... what you couldn't have a worse version of toxoplasmosis? Or super aids? How would you know? Who is the parasitic minded idiot that started parroting the idea that we have to die within a year or even 2 for it to be bad? It has already damaged your brain cell. Guaranteed. You have no idea what we're in store for, do you? When does I have to die immediately or it doesn't matter come from? it's the dumbest part of this covid parasite. Err everyone lives man... Yeah bro, everyone lives... for now. DUH they didnt release it. They framed themselves because they're the only one's who know how to deal with the protozoan parasite that got melted in Antarctica. SO while we're all whining and our leaders are all up on the virus, it's a parasite winning the world for them. Not a bad deal.

Fact. In order to prevent a run on the banks and anarchy they've hired crisis actors to walk amongst your communities and replace dead citizens to keep you calm by artificially presenting a lower impact than there is.
